Crime Commission President Aborn Statement on the Passing of NYPD Detective Steven McDonald

New York, NY - With heavy hearts, the Crime Commission joins the law enforcement community and others in mourning the loss of NYPD Detective Steven McDonald and we express our sincere condolences to his family, friends and colleagues.

“It was an honor to work alongside Detective McDonald to advance efforts to reduce gun violence,” said Citizens Crime Commission President Richard Aborn. “Detective McDonald spoke eloquently and courageously about his experiences and was a true inspiration to all he encountered. New York City and the gun violence prevention movement are greatly indebted to him. We will miss him greatly, but are confident his legacy of forgiveness, hope and peace will endure.”
