Crime Commission President Aborn Statement on the Passing of Brooklyn District Attorney Ken Thompson

New York, NY - Crime Commission President Richard Aborn made the following statement on the passing of Brooklyn District Attorney Ken Thompson:

"This is a sad day for Brooklyn, New York and the entire criminal justice community. Ken Thompson worked honorably on behalf of the borough he loved, made history as Brooklyn's first African American district attorney, and accomplished much in far-too-short a time in office. His presence will be deeply missed in both the criminal justice and law enforcement communities."
